My Mission Statement:

To provide dedicated and high quality entertainment that expands the boundaries of goals and happiness in every celebratory event/occasion.

THE VOICE OF HEALTH

EMCEE SYLVIA

Emcee schedules demand tiptop physical fitness and mental acuity. How do they do it?

Today I meet Sylvia, who shares her key to excellent emcee-ing from day to night.

Sylvia sweeps into the room like a breath of fresh air. First thing you'll notice about her? Radiant skin, flawless mascara, and perfectly coiffed hair. She was emcee-ing at a Family Day event, and has a gala Wedding dinner to host tonight.

I urge Sylvia to share her secret to looking immaculate, despite her tight schedule. "Travel-sized facial wash and body spray!" she confesses with a cheeky wink. As an emcee for product launches, Sylvia is the unofficial ambassador for many brands. Sustaining her glowing complexion and personal hygiene is vital.

Optimal Physical Fitness

That's not all. The energetic emcee boasts an ideal healthy lifestyle. To keep her voice at optimal, Sylvia has 8 hours of beauty sleep daily and devotes free time to regular cardio workouts. Plus, she hits her recommended vegetable intake! I'm witness to its success: Sylvia's bright, clear voice perked me up from the mid-day lethargy.

Refreshed Mind, Energized Audience

On top of physical fitness, Sylvia has astounding mental sharpness. The highly bilingual emcee slips into fluent Cantonese with one of the office interns. And - get this - she manages a conversation in Bahasa with our designer from Indonesia!

More than that, Sylvia addresses everyone in the office by name, engaging all in conversation. When asked how she can memorize so many names, faces, and languages, Sylvia explains: "A healthy lifestyle sharpens my mind."

The Spark in Every Occasion

Healthy living may explain Sylvia's quick wit and clear voice, but her charisma is innate. If you are thinking of skipping on an emcee for your event - think again. Every successful occasion needs a positive, lively atmosphere. This is not a task for anyone. Your best bet would be professional emcees like Sylvia, with years of experience and boundless charm.

An Inspiration to the Crowd

Sylvia's ability to vitalize any crowd comes with practice. It's more than a loud voice. Many don't realize that emotional health is key to being emcee. "Some guests can be witty, so I have to be wittier!" Sylvia quips, captivating me with her charm.

Sadly, Sylvia leaves to host a wedding dinner. Before she does, she treats me to a big bag of healthy fruits and nuts. I'm inspired by Sylvia's healthy living, positive mindset, and bright personality. Our next company event? You're at the top of our list, Sylvia!

Sylvia is a highly versatile emcee/performer. She is effectively bilingual in English and Mandarin. From formal conferences, semi formal events to hyping up a Dinner and Dance, Sylvia has done it all. She is also very experienced and versatile in doing video show hosting and she has several television and radio voice over under her belt too! Check out the videos below and experience how versatile Sylvia can be!!!

Super treat, super fun

SuperKaki Esther Goh had a most enjoyable time last Saturday.

"I love the food at Seasonal Salad Bar, so I'm happy that I get to enjoy the food again with a friend," said the housewife in her 40s.

Madam Goh was one of the 25 TNP SuperKakis selected for a meal at Seasonal Salad Bar, as part of the TNP SuperKaki Makan Mania series.

Each SuperKaki and a partner enjoyed a couple meal consisting of two salad bar buffets ($20.95 each) and a Classic Combo ($29.95) at Seasonal@Kent Ridge.

EXCLUSIVE TNP PREMIUM

Those at the event who followed TNPSUPERKAKI on Instagram and hashtagged their photo with #TNPSUPERKAKI received an exclusive TNP Premium.

Madam Goh subscribed to The New Paper this year as she likes the personal perspective of the paper, while her son, who is in Primary 4, enjoys the sports section.

When she read about the SuperKaki membership on TNP, she immediately signed up as "the membership is like a privilege where one gets to enjoy deals and promotions". Other great meals are on the horizon for SuperKakis.

SuperKakis just need to flash the SuperKaki keychain to enjoy an exclusive offer of three dines for the price of two at Seasonal@Kent Ridge until Dec 31.

I had a chance to work with Sylvia at the Youth Olympic Games Kids Sports Challenge where she was the emcee. Besides displaying a flair for entertaining hundreds of children (and adults) everyday, she was very versatile and took the extra effort to do her job well. The audience was captivated by her liveliness and charisma whenever she went on stage to host the sessions. She was indeed the right person for the job and I will definitely engage and recommend her for future events. Keep up the fantastic work!

Hi Sylvia, thanks for being the Emcee to our wedding! As our wedding is a simple afternoon buffet style as such it can be quite boring. We also decided not to get any brothers or sisters to assist us to be our Emcee as we want them to enjoy this special event along with us and not add stress to them. We believe that a professional Emcee is the answer to our worries. Luckily we chance upon your site and your impressive portfolio. We are really fortunate that we have you as our Emcee due to your tight schedule. No regret. My guests and myself truly enjoy the programs you line up. Our worries that a boring lunch buffet turns up to be a wonderful, fun and a memorable one. Not only did you make everyone participate the games but also manage to make them feel at ease and comfortable. Thanks Sylvia for making our wedding a success!!!

Attended a wedding where Sylvia was the emcee and was really impressed by how Sylvia deals situations! Sylvia is a wonderful emcee that made the wedding so lively instead of the usual boring emcees that you will laugh at for being so boring and monotonous. Highly recommended!

The Rise of The Wedding Emcee

You've seen her at your friend's wedding, your cousin's wedding, and probably at your colleague's wedding too. In fact, word has gotten out so much that Sylvia Tham is now one of the most highly sought after wedding emcees.

Affable and eloquent, the former radio DJ has been in the business for 16 years. Not just bilingual in English and Mandarin, this sassy lass can also throw in Chinese dialects and even Bahasa Indonesian for good measure!

W&T caught up with this gracious host who shed light on some of the pressing questions surrounding a wedding emcee

Comments from satisfied clients:

“Extremely talented, Humorous, Quick Witted and effectively Bilingual”

“One of the most engaging Emcees in Singapore”

“Never fails to get the crowd excited and participative in her games and antics”

“A very good singer cum performer”

“Never fails to dazzle the crowd with her showmanship”

“She has charisma, charm and the skill to capture the audience’s attention. Good speaking command of Cantonese too”

“It was my first time working with Sylvia as she emceed for our bowling event on Tuesday. With her jovial personality and rich hosting experience, she was able to hype up the event and engage the crowd. She is also effectively bilingual, which enabled her to interact well with both English-speaking and Chinese-speaking participants of this event. Not only does she host well, she’s also good at singing! She even sang a song or two to entertain the audience at the end of the event. Thank you Sylvia for making the event a success!”

Thanks once again J
