

30 minutes of pure entertainment & fun awaits you when this bona fide performer storm the stage with his dancers, belting out Anita Mui's hits. The audience can't help but agree that his singing voice definitely captures the unique essence of Anita Mui. His moves, strides and struts bears an uncanny resemblance the Canto-pop queen. Before Mui passed on in 2003, some of the audience mistook him for the real Mui while some on the other hand assumed that Keith was just miming to her songs.

Keith doesn't mime when he is doing this impression of Mui. Singing live passionately to every song and backed by his professional high-energy dancers*, this entertainer is definitely in a class of his own.

Every minute of him on stage is entertaining. In between songs, he banters with the crowd, warming up to them with a finely tuned hilarious stand-up comedy segment. Keith always gets the audience involves in his show and sometimes the most endearing part of his shows comes from the audiences' interaction and participation.

Apart from Singapore, he performed in regional countries like Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia and Hong Kong since 1996. His performed in numerous different events that was sometimes graced with VIPs including ministers & overseas ambassadors. Events include AD&Ds for different companies and corporations, RC shows in the HDB heartlands, variety shows onboard cruise ships, product launches, birthday parties, road shows etc

Keith is fluent in English, Mandarin, Cantonese, Hokkien but he addresses the crowd mainly in English. His songs are in Cantonese, Mandarin & English.

* You have a choice of booking "A Tirbute to Anita Mui" with or without dancers. You can also engage Keith to host for your event in his "Anita Mui" persona.
