about

Nique is a professional multi-award winning magician, specialising in bringing world class sleight of hand entertainment to his audiences. Many in the local magic fraternity consider Nique to be undoubtedly one of the country's top sleight of hand magicians. Highly skilled & personable, his touch during performance is unmistakable, as his baffling illusions amaze members of the public & fellow magicians alike.

In 1997 and 2003, he won the title of "Champion Magician" in both card magic, as well as stand-up magic, in nationwide magic competitions organised by the International Brotherhood of Magicians Singapore Ring 115.

Highly sought after, he has had extensive professional performance experience, performing at international pre-event receptions, restaurant settings as well as at drawing room parlour shows in Malaysia, Brunei, Thailand, Australia and Hong Kong. He has also been invited to perform exclusive private shows for some of today's top pop icons & celebrities, at high-powered corporate functions, as well as consulting and appearing on numerous television productions.

Several of Nique's sell-out instructional material as well as products have also been released in the magic market, made exclusively available only to fellow magicians. He has also been invited to conduct lectures and workshops for magicians at prestigious magicians-only conventions.

In June 2011, Nique successfully staged his first ever solo theatre show, Mind Magic, at the Jubilee Hall, in Raffles Hotel.

Nique's perfectionist nature brings to you entertainment of the highest calibre. His engaging performing persona, coupled with elegant magical entertainment, make his performances ideal to enhance any evening with art and charm.

close-up show

This is Nique's specialty; one that even fellow professionals hold him in high regard for. In this strolling styled show, Nique will mingle with your guests, allowing them the opportunity to experience his award winning magic & intimate mind-reading skills at close quarters.

Highly interactive & stylishly delivered in his distinct, personable style, this act is often requested for pre-event settings, corporate dinners, receptions as well as at cocktail parties.

show packages

Nique offers close-up magic in hourly blocks, with a maximum of 3 hours of strolling and mingling at the event. Customisation of Acts: Nique is available for specifically developing and customising close up magic effects and presentations for delivering messages, or to showcase certain themes (trade shows, educational shows, festive shows, exhibitions, product launches).

singer

Another of Nique's many facets is his vocal talent. Previously active in the local music industry, he was a member of the band "J3", who were awarded "Best Vocal" and "Best Stage Performance" at the Xin Yao Festival 2005, and went on to be grand finalists on Channel U's "Superband" in 2006. Also an avid composer, Nique was also awarded "Best Melody", Gold Award at the Xin Yao Festival 2005.

While having a versatile tone, Nique's specialty is in the ballads, adding a touch of light, live entertainment to your event.

show packages

Single

Suited for transitional sequences, Nique can be engaged to perform just one song.

Trio

Nique can also be booked for a 10 to 15 minute stage performance of three songs. This is suited to wedding events, selected corporate events as well as at private events.

gambler

Take a front row seat and step into the world of the underground card hustler. This is a new performance that fuses expert sleight of hand with an engaging personality, creating something truly fascinating.

Widely recognised as one of Singapore's top sleight of hand exponents, Nique will demonstrate the various techniques actually used by professional card cheats, and actually explain the secret techniques used by card hustlers the world over, providing you with an entertaining, as well as an educational experience.

This show has a naturally engaging hook to it, and people are almost automatically drawn to its lure and charm.

show packages

Nique performs the gambling demonstration in hourly blocks, either seated with a table provided by the venue, or mingling with guests. This show is a seldom seen and unique form of performance, making it a fresh addition to your next pre event entertainment. It would also complement Casino or Vegas themed events perfectly.

Private demonstrations are available upon request.
